Board of Certification Conflict of Interest and Confidentiality Policy

- 06.01 Definition
- A. Conflict of Interest
A conflict of interest occurs whenever an individual has a direct or indirect interest, financial or otherwise in the outcome of any transaction or matter involving the BOC. A conflict of interest also occurs whenever an individual has a relationship with other parties to the transaction or matter such that the relationship might reasonably be expected to affect the judgment of the individual in the particular transaction or matter in a manner adverse to the BOC.
 - B. Confidentiality
All information pertaining to an individual's application, individual scores, item banks, contents of examinations, and any other items pertaining to the processing of applications, preparation of examinations or scoring of examination are confidential.
- 06.02 Disclosure Statement – Conflict of Interest
- A. All members of the BOG and Committees, consultants, guests, staff and other volunteers are required to sign a disclosure statement of potential conflict of interest as described in Procedure 05.00.
 - B. If a conflict of interest arises in connection with the activities of any deliberative units within the BOC, the conflict should be disclosed to the other members of the body and the individual should abstain from voting on the matter at issue.
 - C. Activities with professional associations, accrediting or certifying agencies, consulting firms, or commercial entities relating to certification of medical laboratory personnel should be evaluated for potential conflict of interest by the Executive Director of the BOC prior to making arrangements to attend a BOC meeting.
 - D. No member or employee of the BOC may participate in any activity, either as a volunteer or for pay, in which there may be a conflict of interest with any activity or responsibility of the BOC.
 - 1. It is essential that the BOC maintain a clear separation of its activities from the accreditation of education and training programs. Therefore, members and employees of the BOC should carefully avoid any participation in the policy making aspects of accreditation of education and training programs.
 - 2. BOG and Committee members, consultants, guests, other volunteers and employees of the BOC should not participate in policy making activities related to laboratory sciences outside of the BOC. These include:
 - a. Participation in other certification committees and/or processes
 - b. Certification or review preparation courses, practice tests, study guides
 - c. Authorship (including editing) of review guides, practice tests, study guides
 - d. Mock Board reviews
 - 3. Any exceptions to the above must be approved by the Executive Committee
 - 4. A member or employee of the BOC may participate in such activities only as an official representative of the BOC.
 - E. Individuals who are members of an Examination Committee are not eligible to sit for that committee's examination or qualification until one year after completion of committee service.
- 06.03 Confidentiality Statement
- A. All members of the BOG, R&D and Examination Committees, consultants, guests and other volunteers are required to sign a confidentiality statement prior to making arrangements to attend a BOC meeting.
 - B. Guests are required to sign a Conflict of Interest and Confidentiality Policy Acceptance Form prior to attending the committee meeting.
 - C. All employees of the BOC are required to sign this acceptance form at commencement of their employment.
 - D. Confidential information as defined in 06.01 B may be disclosed only with the permission of the Chair of the Board of Governors or upon approval of legal counsel.
