Confessions of a Laboratory Safety Officer

Credits: 2 CME/CMLE

Despite vigilant compliance, extensive training and numerous safety regulations, bad things can still happen to laboratorians. This eCourse presents a first-person view of case studies where small details drastically influenced safety outcomes.

Before purchasing an eCourse, you should ensure your PC meets our hardware & system requirements.

Note: Please check to see that you have the most current Adobe Flash Player to ensure that our eLearning software works on your computer.
